Ref: (a) MARADMIN 338/21 Implementation of Tactical Combat Casualty Care All Service Member Tier I Training
(b) DODI 1322.21 Common Military Training
(c) NAVMC 3500.18D Marine Corps Common Skills Volume I Training and Readiness Manual
(d) MARADMIN 421/22 Tactical Combat Casualty Care-Combat Lifesaver Implementation

1. In accordance with reference (a), Headquarters Battalion (HQ BN), Training and Education Command (TECOM), will implement the Tactical Combat Casualty Care-All Service Member (TCCC-ASM) training and certification to all assigned Marines and Sailors. This is not a requirement for civilians. Certification for FMF and SE Marines is required within 12 months prior to deployment per ref (B). Marines receive their initial TCCC-ASM certification at ELT; operational commanders are responsible for pre-deployment re-certification of TCCC-ASM. TCCC-ASM is a joint standardized certification being implemented within the Marine Corps to all Marines and non-medical Sailors, providing the initial medical skills necessary to ensure lifesaving treatment can be rendered in the absence of a Corpsmen and improve the survivability of those wounded or injured in combat.

2. Per reference (d), Headquarters Battalion (HQ BN), Training and Education Command (TECOM), will implement the Tactical Combat Casualty Care-Combat Life Saver (TCCC-CLS) training/certification and will ensure at least two marines per corpsman on the unit table of organizations are trained and certified in TCCC-CLS. Certification is every three years or within 12 months prior to deployment and yearly sustainment.

3. Training is accomplished via the presentation of materials via slide deck, the didactic method, and practical application and testing evaluated by appointed TCCC Trainers, skills training. Trainers will utilize the standardized and approved curriculum provided at the Defense Health Agency-sponsored deployed medicine website by the Defense Health Agency, <https://www.deployedmedicine.com>.

4. The TCCC-CLS/ASM trainer course schedule is listed below.
